TPOGIM Newsletter 2025

APOSTLE'S DESK

Beloved: grace, mercy, peace, and joy be yours from our heavenly father through His son our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. God is good, and I am thankful for his goodness in granting us the privilege to see 2025.

My prayer is not only being afforded with the opportunity to crossover in the celebration of life: but I pray God will keep us all with long life, good health, and deposit heavenly enlargement blessings upon you in Jesus' name. May God's mercy and love perfect all that concerns you this year.

As we see a new dawn and New Year, people all over the world are still in a celebratory mood for entering into 2025. While it is okay to celebrate, we must not forget as believers in Christ Jesus that the devil is a wicked sniper, looking at every access and weak link to devour you.

The Bible let us know in 1 Corinthians 14:40 – "that all children of God, should get things done in decency and in order." As a congregation, God is demanding His best from us, by aligning everything in order. From January 1st, our Kingdom principles and application towards Him has to be in order; such as: relationship with Him, in obedience to His chosen Shepherd, fellowship with others, love for one another, servitude in spirit of love and excellence, winning of lost souls for His Kingdom, active visitations and cell groups, timely attendance and completion of service, support of Kingdom events (in and out of the four walls of the Ministry), completion of God's sanctuary with a spirit of teamwork, and carrier of the joy and spirit to give freely this year. As I conclude, I pray during these twenty-one (21) days of Fasting and Prayer that God will help all of us in putting our lives and homes in order by presenting the best of ourselves to God as one approved of His works throughout 2025 – 2 Timothy 2:15-16. Apostle Paul reminds us, if we are not making effort to gain God's approval through the way we live and through the things we do, we will often find ourselves ashamed to stand before God.

So, I charge you in truth to your calling and Faith in your Heavenly Father. Do your best to be devoted to learning what pleases Him and to show yourself as one approved of God. I pray you will not attempt Satan's convenient tactics "Excuses," that will shame you in the presence of God this year. May His grace continually be with you as you present a character of excellence before Him this 2025 in Jesus' name. Amen.

Assoc. Pastor Rev Mary Johnson's Desk

The year 2024 had its challenges, but The Power of God International Ministry ended the year "Undefeated." Through unwavering faith and resilience, our community navigated obstacles while fostering unity and spiritual growth. As we reflect on our achievements and lessons learned, our leaders are looking to the Lord in 2025 for open doors to Enlargement. We anticipate more opportunities to grow, both in faith and in service to our community. With a renewed commitment to outreach and discipleship, we are excited to embrace the possibilities that lie ahead, trusting that God will guide us toward a fruitful and transformative year.

THIS MONTH'S MEMBER FEATURE

Meet Pastor Paul Wallace!

Pastor Paul humbly serve as a Pastor at The Power of God International Ministry (TPOGIM), where I lead the Praise and Worship Ministry, teach Adult Sunday School, and contribute to various committees, including Building, Pastoral, and Men's departments. With over 23 years in education, I currently work as a Middle School Instructor in the Osceola County School District. I am happily married to Min. Andrea Wallace for 22 years, with two daughters, Abigail and Josiann. It brings me great joy to serve God and support the Senior Pastor and leadership at TPOGIM.

Fun Fact: I am a self-taught musician continuously perfecting my craft, balancing boldness with a unique sense of shyness.
